

35 million plain old telephone (POTS) lines will become unsupported by carriers in the US in August 2022.

What should you do?

Failure to address this impending change in coverage could cause a 75-150% rate increase on your POTS lines.

You may find yourself paying for services that you can't use due to lack of carrier support.

Read ISG's article
to find out what you need
to do now to avoid costly
issues when FCC 19-72A1
goes into effect.

